THE REAL QUESTION. The Real QUESTION.

The real question of disease is "Can I be cured?" If you or anyone dear to you is loaing strength, flesh, energy and vitality, if you are wise you will not spend time trying to figure out just what name to call the disease by.

It is almost impossible to draw the line where debility and weakness merge into consumption. Your trouble may not be consumption to-day, but you don't know what it may become to-morrow. Hundreds of people have been re-ever know.

The important point is that they were hopolessly ill but this matchless "Discovery" restored and saved them.

"I was not able to do hardly any work at all," says Mrs. Jennie Dimman, of Vanburen, Kalkaska Co., Mich., in a most interesting fetter to Dr. Pierce. "I bad pain in my left side and back, and had headache all the time. I tried your medicine and it helped ma. Last spring I had a bad cough; I got so bad I had to be in bed all the time. "My husband thought I had consumption. He wanted me to get a doctor, but I told him if it was consumplion they could not help me. We thought we would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had taken one bottle the cough was stopped and I have had no more of it returning. Your medicine is the best I have taken."

wedicine is the best I have taken."

Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice, In a plain sealed envelope, absolutely free. His nearly 40 years experience as shief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y., has made him an expert in chronic diseases.

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pieasant Pellets.

THE CZAR AND WITTE.

M. Witte, after his audience of the Emperor of Russia at Peterhof, returned last evening to St. Petersburg and drove directly to the foreign office, where he was closeted for three hours with Foreign Minister Lamsdorff.

A sensational report was current early this morning that M. Witte might not go to Washington after all. A cording to the story his audience of the Emperor was anything but smooth, the Czar rather resenting M. Witte's plain spoken ideas, and indicating that under the circumstances he would prefer that Baron Rosen should act as chird plenipotentiary. The Emperor is even said to the intimated that Count I smallers. to have intimated that Count Lamsdorff exceeded his authority in officially aunouncing to the Washington govern-ment that M. Witte would occupy the first position.

Witte is said to have left the Emperor in an ugly frame of mind, and to ave frankly informed Count Lamsdorff have frankly informed Count Lamsdorn that it would be impossible for him to undertake the mission. It was only by the greatest effort, the story says, that the Foreign Minister succeeded in persuading him not to flatly refuse, and the question as to whether he would go to Washington is said to be still open.

At Witte's personal solicitation M. Korotovitz, one of the ablest young diplomats who formerly was secretary of the Russian Legation at Peking, will be attached to the Russian mission, Spontaneously all parties recognized Newbro's Herpleide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing. When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

that M. Witte's selection made for a successful termination of the peace negotiations. The mere fact that the Emperor at last yielded to the pressure for Witte's appointment was accepted as being complete assurance that he was sincerely designed. that M. Witte's selection made for a suc-cessful termination of the peace negotiatermined to end the conflict and make peace it a possible basis was obtainable. Every influence which championed M. Witte was for peace, while, on the contrary, in every instance those who op-posed him were for a prolongation of the France, through Ambassador Nalidoff, strongly urged him for the post, but the main credit for M. Witte's selection be-longs to Foreign Minister Lausdorff, who never ceased to press for his selection. Count Lamsdorff and M. Witte are now in close alliance, and when M. Bouligin retires from the ministry of the interior all the ministers will at least be in harmony, especially should Prince Sviato-polk Mirsky return to the head of the ministry of the interior.

The Russian Troubles.

The Russian authorities are exerting their utmost to conceal the fact of the growing dissensions and, in several instances, open rebellion in the army. A regiment of sappers stationed at a small village in the mountains near Tiflis, Caucasia, has rebelled, and it is reported the soldiers have murdered all the officers and joined the revolution-

The situation is daily becoming more critical, and it is said the Czar, urged on by the autocracy, will make General Trehoff minister of the interior in the hope that his policy of oppression and tyranny may be successful. Trehoff, though real-izing that he is marked by the terrorists, is utterly tearless.

The government consorship, now un-der his direction as assistant minister of the interior, has been revived with all its pristine vigor. A blanket order has been issued positively prohibiting the publication of any news relating to strikes, disorders or revolutionary ac

A band of terrorists fully equipped to manufacture bombs and forge passports was captured in a house near the Fon-tanka canal Thursday night. The po-lice surrounded the building occupied by the desperadoes, but the inmates fought them off with revolvers. After the police had received reinforcements the whole gang was made prisoners.

Several of the policemen were wounded.
The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Daily Mail says that the threatened famine in central, eastern and northern Russia will far surpass those of 1891 and 1897. The crops of winter and summer grain, peas, beans and cattle food have totally failed. The misfortune is increased by the fact that all able-bodied men have been summoned to join the reserves, women, children and aged men alone being left. The women in many villages have marched in bodies to the police stations, which are the temporary quarters of the reservists, and demanded that their husbands be restored to them. The government is doing nothing to relieve the distress, despite the repeated representations of the ze
